WILLIAMSBURG WILLS.

James City County was one of the eight original shires into which the Colony of Virginia was divided in 1634. Williamsburg the present County seat was at a very early period the seat of the District Court. It was the capital of the State from 1699-1779 when the records were removed to Richmond. During the war the court records were moved to Richmond and there destroyed by the fire at the Evacuation.

The wills herein are abstracts of all the wills now on file in the Chancery Court. The originals in many cases have been destroyed and the copies at Williamsburg are the only ones in existence.
